Kundenrezensionen Hilfreichste Kundenrezensionen 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A MUST READ for all Josh Lanyon's fans! Von Lena Ribka What for a beautiful and emotional little piece of prose! I like theatre. And this short novella is like a single act out of a theatre play with two actors, a final act. The curtain falls. Silence. And then.... Standing ovation from one part of the audience and reserved enthusiasm from the other part. Well, there is only 18 pages. The author leaves a lot of space for any kind of interpretation and imagination. Everyone creates his own background of the story. And our stories are as different as we are. Well, I am definitely among the audience with jubilant ovations! It helps to understand the dynamic and the hidden message of the story if you won't miss the introduction at the beginning: "Originally written for Torquere Press's donation to Lambda's Legal Fund in support of gay marriage. "
