Kansas"-Reihe geht es um Grant Carson, mit dem die Reihe eigentlich begonnen hat. Da sich Grants Mutter Sorgen um Grants Umtriebigkeit gemacht hat, hat sie eine Katalogbraut für ihn bestellt, die letzten Endes aber seinen jüngsten Bruder Charlie geheiratet hat (Buch 1). Indes hat Grant seine Affäre mit einer verheirateten Frau jahrelang fortgesetzt, bis er eines von deren Ehemann angeschossen wurde, und daraufhin entschieden hat, die Beziehung zu beenden. Als er im Gefängnis landet, trifft er auf Taschendiebin Eva Caldwell, ist er fest entschlossen der mutigen Frau zu helfen, die alles daran setzt, ihre Schwester zu retten. Eva vertraut jedoch niemanden und verschwindet bald wieder aus seinem Leben. Umso entsetzter ist Grant, als er erfährt, dass die Jungfernschaft einer jungen Frau in einem Bordell versteigert werden soll, und dass es sich bei dieser Frau ausgerechnet um Eva handelt. Natürlich bietet er mit, wei jedoch noch nichts, von der Gefahr, in der Eva steckt. Mit dem vierten Teil schließt die US-Autorin ihre Carson-Brüder-Reihe gekonnt ab. Geschrieben ist auch dieses Buch in einem eher einfachen Stil, doch ich mochte ihre recht spannende Erzählweise und ihre Hauptprotagonisten. Fazit: Das Buch ist ein netter Zeitvertreib, der sich auch mit einigen ernsten Themen auseinandersetzt und erzählt von einer mutigen Frau und einem starken Mann.

Kurzbeschreibung Eva Caldwell is on the hunt for the gunslinger who attacked her sister, Cora, vowing to kill the man when she sees him again. The orphaned sisters have never had an easy life, struggling to fend for themselves by any means possible. A pickpocket by profession, Eva brazenly robs several men on the train to Topeka. However, her luck seems to have run out after shes apprehended and sent to jail, where she meets Grant Carson, who has been arrested for public indecency. Grant Carsons stubborn refusal to settle down and marry has exasperated his long-suffering mother, Maggie. He has been involved with a married woman for years now, but being shot at by an angry husband has forced him to rethink his choices. Grant is intrigued by Evas innocent vulnerability, wanting more than anything to help her. Yet the plucky blonde is illusive and vexing, having a plan of her own. Upon hearing that a new bordello was offering up its virgin madam for a price Grant is shocked to learn that it is none other than Eva. He steps up to take what is his, outbidding everyone, knowing he is a fool, risking it all, yet not caring in the least. But a threat looms, as the one man Evas been waiting for arrives at her establishment.
