Brahms Von wenzcat This is one of her best books so far! Whether Maine author Ann Brahms is writing a 2 part memoir about growing up and living in Portland Maine (THE KEY IS UNDER THE FLOWER POT AND NANA'S HOUSE), or entertaining suspense/love stories or the fantastic puppy training book Puppy Ed. (written together with husband Paul Brahms), her versatility is refreshing! I have read 3 of her books in the past few weeks. Can't wait to see what is coming next! Thanks Mrs. Brahms, you have provided countless hours of reading enjoyment for me! By the way, it is really fun to order them on Kindle, within SECONDS I can start reading

Kurzbeschreibung "A Matter Of Time." A romantic suspense. Austrian WW II bride, Johanna Miller, finds a tense environment when she arrives in South Portland, Maine to begin her new life. Years later, after suffering a stroke, she awakes to find herself in a dreadful nursing home filled with danger. Johanna knows she has to escape to save her life and fulfill her dream of returning to her native Austria. Kurzbeschreibung "A Matter Of Time." A romantic suspense.
