SpannendVon Andrea HartigSehr spannend und kurzweilig. Eine Mischung zwischen Thriller und Lovestory. Leichte Kost fr khle Herbst und Winterabende . Das richtige fr Krimiliebhaber .

Kurzbeschreibung Quinn McGuire only wanted to lay her mother to rest. She planned to hustle out of Hayden County, Kentucky once it was all done. The town held nothing but bad memories for her. She never forget the echoes of childrens taunts calling her poor trash and whispers about her daddy's crimes. With the exception of her best friend, Jack Lassiter, there was no one in Hayden she cared about - and shed even been hiding from him for the last two years. But in less than 24-hours after her arrival, Quinns brother gets arrested for murder, derailing her plans for a quick exit. Quinn has to find a way to clear his name, but shadows from her past threaten her efforts and her sanity. As she moves closer to the truth, she just may be putting herself in the path of the real killer.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende K. S. David lives in the Mid-Atlantic with her husband, their three children and a menagerie of pets. New storylines are constantly running through her head. She keeps notebooks tucked in pockets of the car, the nightstand and makes voice recordings just about all day long. She's addicted to true life mysteries and crime shows, both of which marry well with a great romance. Some of her favorite things are long walks, reading in bed, baking and of course, writing her next novel.
