Sie schreibt teilweise wirklich ungehnlliche m/m romances mit assergewhnlichen Helden.Dieses Buch ist ein Folgebuch zu "Stirring Up Trouble", kann aber auch allein gelesen

werden. Wie bewerte ich das jetzt....im Vergleich zu vielen anderen m/m romances - Maxfield Bcher sind einfach einen Touch besser. Im Vergleich zu Maxfields eigenen Bchern gehrt es eher zu den durchschnittlichen. Aber es hat alle Komponenten, die ein unterhaltsames Buch ausmacht, sympathische Helden mit Fehlern (sehr gut beschreiben: Brendans Panikattacken), einen folgerichtigen Plot (ja, ein Arzt, der sich mit seinem Patienten einlsst, weil er halt nicht anders kann, legt die Aufgabe nieder) und jede Menge Humor. Ach ja, und ein kleines Wiedersehen mit Evan und Toby, das eine wichtige Rolle spielt. Gbe es halbe Punkte, dieses htte 4,5. Ich werde es sicher zur Unterhaltung wieder lesen. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Loved it Von Customer I liked Evans and Toby's story just a tad bit more because it was about cooking but I also liked this story it was really sweet and the ending was just hilarious...

Kurzbeschreibung After Brendan and his mother witness a completely random tragedy, his carefully controlled life begins to fall apart. First he starts having nightmares and panic attacks, and then he loses focus in his daily life. His board of directors insists he take a vacation at a so-called relaxation destination and to make matters worse, theyve hired newly minted psychiatrist, Dr. Dirk Melovitch, to accompany him. Dirk, whose job it is to help Brendan learn to relax, walks into the lobby of Brendans hotel wearing a borrowed suit and an attitude that rubs Brendan the wrong way from the moment they meet. They head for the airport and their carefully planned itinerary goes out the window, one small setback at a time. From the airports of New York and Atlanta, to the long, lonely highways of Texas, to an upscale rehab destination in Santa Fe, Brendan and Dirk each try to gain the upper hand until both find out that its not just life that can get a guy All Stirred Up.
