MoertlWhile I love all of Suz's books, ATTN will now held a special place in my heart... yes, it is a - relatively - short story and therefore Dolphina's and Will's love story is cut a bit short and simplified and we miss details in their characterization we are used to getting from Suz in her longer stories - but it IS a "holiday novella", theirs is a side story and I could imagine she'll maybe revisit with both in further books to come.. ? And yes, calling it a "Troubleshooter Christmas" when the story ends a few days before Christmas and is more about the wedding preparations than Christmas, is maybe a bit misleading... BUT it is a wonderful continuation of Jules' and Robin's love story (yes, I loved Force of Nature, too!)! A more fitting sub-title would probably be "Love Is All Around" or something like that - even sitting at home all alone and just reading the tender, emotional scenes she wrote for her heroes made me feel loved ...for days I was wandering around in a surprisingly happy state of mind, with no other reason than her wonderful story! You can feel that Jules has always been a favourite of Suz's, and she gave him and Robin some of the most touching love scenes she probably ever wrote...so, if you want a real "feel good" story and enjoy being reunited with a lot of her heroes from other Team 16 and TS stories, celebrating with them all the good news around, I thoroughly recommend this book! My only regret is that it is not longer...I could have read on and on and on...1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A story to let you feel good !Von starbooksIHHigh five to Sue. Yes, it is a holiday story and being such it has every right to be a bit on the light side regarding the stalker threat and the unfolding drama. But, please be fair: what do you expect from a story titled "Troubleshooter's christmas" ? I for one did expect exactly what I got: a wonderful story filled with love. To have many of those nice people the readers have met in previous book with us for the celebrations was very nice, too. You see, often you meet two lovers, accompany them through their love story, they have their happy ending and then you never see them again, so to speak. I like writers who let us keep in touch during following books. Just so you can see that they are still doing well. It's kind of meeting old friends. It gives me - old romantic that I am - a good feeling that they are well, keeping the love and making their relationship work. What has surprised me before - and here even more so, since it is Jules' and Robin's time before the wedding - that there is an author who had the heart and the courage to introduce a gay hero into the world of romance novels and - smile - succeeded in make me love him. Following Jules through the previous books, his struggle to come over Adam, finding Robin, making the hard decision to part ways with him, nevertheless keeping him in his heart, coping with all that emotional struggle made me wishing for a happy ending for him. And to see it finally happen made me feel soo good. Not to forget that Sue found so beautiful dialogues it almost made me cry. Jules' and Robin's love is so deep, it makes you wish all people were that lucky. And that is what makes the book so 5-star earning. Reading it really makes you kind of walking around in a haze, because it is simply good for the soul to believe that such love is possible.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Zum dahinschmelzen schn!!Von K.R. "lesenswert-empfehlenswert.blogspot.com"Dies ist Band 12 der groartigen Troubleshooter-Serie von Suzanne Brockmann, es ist eine "holiday novella" und darum auch nicht allzu seitenstark, es gibt auch nur eine vollwertige Nebenstory mit Dolphina und Will, aber das tut dem Unterhaltungswert keinen Abbruch. Wir treffen liebgewonnene Charaktere aus Iteren Bchern wieder, natrlich auch Lys und Sam und ich war einfach nur glcklich, dass ich die Geschichte und die Hochzeit dieser beiden wunderbaren Mnner miterleben durfte!Ich bin ein Jules Robin - Fan der ersten Stunde, seitdem ich die beiden zum ersten Mal in "Cosmos"-Buch "Hot Target" zusammen erlebt hatte, habe ich jede einzelne Szene der beiden aufgesaugt und konnte schon in "Force of Nature" mein Glck kaum fassen, als beide endlich zusammen kamen. Nun soll Hochzeit gefeiert werden in "All Through the Night", es ist eine vorweihnachtliche Feier geplant, allerdings wre es kein Brockman-Roman, wenn alles glatt gehen wrde :-). Jules wird kurzfristig auf eine gefhrliche Mission nach Kandahar geschickt und ein Reporter schleicht sich auf die kleine "Vor"-Hochzeitsfeier von Jules und Robin, auf der Suche nach schmutziger Wsche und dreckigen Details. Dazu kommt noch ein verckter Stalker, der nicht nur die beiden Hochzeitswilligen bedroht, sondern auch Adam, den Ex von Jules. Als Adam dann auch noch in Boston aufschlgt, droht die Situation gnzlich aus dem Ruder zu laufen. Denn die drei Mnner schweben pltzlich in akuter Lebensgefahr und auch alte Wunden drohen wieder aufzubrechen... .Gott-Sei-Dank befindet sich unter den Hochzeitsgsten aber nicht nur ein astreines Anti-Terror-Kommando mit einschlgiger FBI-Erfahrung, sondern auch eine Reihe von anbetungswrdigen Navy-Seals.... . ;-) Natrlich wird am Schluss geheiratet :-)) und wie! Das Buch ist eine absolute Wohlflh-Zone. Die Interaktion von Jules und Robin ist einmalig, ich kann einfach nicht genug von den beiden bekommen. Sie sind so hei, dass die Seiten beim Lesen frmlich brennen, aber auch so unglaublich romantisch, dass bei mir die Trnchen mehrmals kullerten!! Ich wei, dass Frau Brockmann mit dieser Love-Story ihrem Sohn ein Denkmal gesetzt hat, und ich finde es wunderbar!!!
