KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Happily ever after Von Customer It was a great adventures and although it was shocking to see that snow white is evil and kinda 1st herself it was also sad that the love she had for idi couldn't help her find happiness and that she forgot all her love for her Brother... I so hope that atticus will find happiness someday...

Kurzbeschreibung Screw-up Princess and Skillful Huntsman Trilogy: Book One A Fairy Tales of the Open Road Novel Modern fairy-tale princess Taylor Hatfield has problems. One: hes a guy. Two: his perfect brother Atticus is the reincarnation of Snow White. Three: Taylor has no idea which princess he is supposed to be. Four: Taylor just left his prince (a girl) at the altar. Despite his enchanted lineage, Taylor is desperate to find his Happily Ever After away from magic, witches, and stuffy traditions. Regrettably, destiny has other plans for him. Dammit. When word reaches Taylor that Idi the Witchking has captured Atticus, Taylor is determined to save his brother. He enlists the help of rakish and insufferable Corentin Devereaux, likewise of enchanted lineage. A malicious spell sends Taylor and Corentin on a road trip through the kitschy nostalgia of roadside Americana. To save Atticus, they must solve the puzzles put forth by Idi the Witchking. As they struggle, Taylor and Corentins volatile partnership sparks a flash of something more. But princesses have many enemies, and Taylor must keep his wits about him because theres nothing worse than losing your heart or your head. Kurzbeschreibung Screw-up Princess and Skillful Huntsman Trilogy: Book
