berall einzumischen, lässt sie zwischen die Fronten einer Nachbarschaftsfehde geraten. Um sich vor den berauschten Anwohnern zu schützen, will sie einen Friedensstifter engagieren. Stattdessen taucht der berchtigte Revolverheld Angel bei ihr auf und bringt die feindlichen Parteien schnell zur Raison. Ein nachtragender Nachbar will unbedingt eine Heirat zwischen Cassie und Angel erzwingen. Langst haben beide schon Gefühle freinander entwickelt, ohne es jedoch dem anderen eingestehen zu wollen. Die Hochzeit wider Willen endet mit einer leidenschaftlichen Liebesnacht, die Annullierung der Ehe kann nicht mehr erfolgen. Trotzdem gehen Cassie und Angel zunächst getrennte Wege, doch keiner kann den anderen vergessen ...Johanna Lindseys "Angel", wurde bereits in den 90ern geschrieben, hat jedoch nichts von seiner Spannung und Leidenschaft verloren. "Brave the Wild Wind" und "Savage Thunder" sind die Vorgänger dieses Buches, deren Protagonisten auch hier in Erscheinung treten. Die Story beinhaltet eine spannende und leidenschaftliche Westernromanze mit einem Paar, das sich schnell in die Herzen der Leserin "spielt". Angel, der Held, ist so, wie sich wohl (fast) jede Frau den Mann ihrer Träume vorstellt: wild und zärtlich, sehr männlich und gefühlvoll. Cassie ist das passende Gegenstück, mal leidenschaftlich und hingebungsvoll, dann wieder stolz und stritsch. Der Roman ist eine gelungene Mischung aus Spannung, Romantik und Leidenschaft, die einen kurzweiligen Lesespaß garantiert. (SaS)1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A great readVon Ein KundeI really liked Angel and Cassie together. I have to admit I wanted more than anything for Angel to be happy. It broke my heart when he felt that Cassie would never want a man like him. All he wanted was to be wanted and not feared. My favorite part was when he asked her if "they" touched her and she said no, they weren't attracted to her and he saying they must be blind. What a sweetheart he was. I have to admit that I wasn't very happy with her mother for some time. I didn't like it that she tried to tell Cassie what to do with HER life. As all of JL's books, the endings are incredible.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. "Angel" is of Johanna Lindsey's best . Von Ein KundeI collect Mrs. Lindsey's books I'm only missing three titles. I read Angel for the first time a little over two years ago, I have read it numerous times since. It has become one of my favorites. It is always nice to see a connection with the books you read. Johanna Lindsey has the talent to re-introduce characters without making it seem like they are still stuck in the first book you read with the same characters. Cassie and Angel are a unique pair and they truly deserve a book of their own. It is also nice to enter again the lives of Colt Joselyn and Jesse Chase it almost feels as if you are visiting old friends. There's something that can be said about a book that not only, introduces new characters to interact with old familiar ones, but also can make you feel as if you are living the story
