A great debut of Autumn GreyVon SejlaThis is the first book of the amazing Havoc series by author Autumn Grey.Selene Michaels (a beautiful, curvy woman in her mid-twenties) leaves New York for a 3 months modeling contract in Paris after a painful divorce which made her feel worthless. Putting her past behind, she is determined to move on and have some fun.In the city of love she meets a handsome stranger Remington St. Germain - without knowing that this encounter is going to change their both lives forever. Remington is a wealthy, confident and successful man, who at first intimidates Selene with his broody character. She is a little uncertain about his attitude towards her. Little does she know that Remington's initial reservation is his desperate attempt to keep his huge attraction for her at bay. Despite his tragic past and current situation (Remington is having a stalker), he can't stay away from Selene anymore. They start seeing each other. Let me tell you that their chemistry is scorching hot! These two are a force of nature and you can't help but fall in love with them. Unfortunately as soon as Selene and Remington grow closer their happiness is destroyed by a new threatening note. Remington knows that pursuing Selene would bring him and his little son Adrien in danger but is he willing to take this risk? This question is going to be answered in the second book Obliterate.

Remington St. Germain is the epitome of an alpha male: He is protective, loyal and caring. I loved that he was not ashamed of showing his affection for Selene openly. He is also a great father to his adorable 5 year old son who is very fond of Selene. Selene is an admirable young woman that went through some tragic stuff, but still doesn't lose faith in finding love and happiness. She is very considerate and understanding. I truly enjoyed reading Havoc and I'm looking forward to the next two books. Congratulations on a great debut Autumn Grey!

Selene Michaels decides to start all over again after a painful divorce. She accepts a modeling job for 3 months in Paris. Selene wants to enjoy working as a curvy model again and have some fun while staying in France. What she didn't expect was to meet the brooding, sexy and mysterious artist Remington St. Germain. Selene feels a strong pull towards Remington but his mixed signals are confusing and frustrating her. Remington is sexually attracted to Selene and is mesmerized by her inner and outer beauty. She reminds him however physically of his dead wife which is holding him back from chasing her at the beginning. The other reason for it is the threats he is receiving by an anonymous person. Nevertheless Remington starts seeing Selene and spending time with her and his son Adrien, whom Selene adores since their first meeting. One night, as Remington is painting Selene at his house, he receives a threatening letter which reminds him of the danger he is getting himself and his son into by staying with Selene. Is this going to be the end of their love story before it has even begun? Can Selene really stay away from the man who has intrigued her and awakened feelings inside her that she has never felt before? Will Remington give up easily on the woman that has charmed her way into his heart? These questions will be answered in the next book - Obliterate. I could relate on several levels with Selene Michaels. I loved and respected her for the way she coped with everything that life threw at her. She is such a strong and passionate woman. Selene feels confident with her curves and is not afraid to show them. Remington St. Germain is totally swoon-worthy. He is a strong and confident man, who cares for and protects the people he loves. He is such a passionate person and is not afraid to show his affection openly. I love him for being a great father. What I admire about Selene and Remington is that despite their hurtful experiences they both haven't given up their hope to find true love. Their chemistry is undeniable and their encounters scorching hot!!! This is a great debut by Autumn Grey that everyone needs to read! I enjoyed each and every page of it. You will fall in love with this story and the characters. Make sure to read Obliterate and Mend as well!

Endlich mal ein Buch aus der new adult Reihe, dessen Story sich von den anderen abhebt! Ich fand es super gut!

KurzbeschreibungHavoc is the first installment of a three-part serial, each approximately 36000 words. (110 pages)Selene Michaels is determined to never let anyone make her feel inferior again. After a painful divorce, she finds herself in Paris on a working holiday, hopeful that this will be the opportunity she has been waiting for. She intends to have fun and maybe find someone to flirt with; someone who will show her a good time, treat her right, and awaken her to all she has been missing. What she does not expect to find is Remington St. Germain and his adorable son, Adrien. Remington is intense, devastatingly hot and a Prince Charming on the outside, but a dirty talking, insatiable devil behind closed doors the opposite of the man she has been hoping for and not the type to give up on something that he wants. Selene soon realizes that life with Remington is not only interesting, but adventurous. Its dangerous, and she's about to find out how dangerous. . . if she is brave enough to take a chance.Reading Order*
