incredible flair for time, is on the quest for mastering the problem of curing illness with time, but an enemy of old has seen that the manipulation of time is forbidden. Saille T'Willow who just discovered that she is his heart mate must learn that his grandmother not only hid his heart mate from him for years, but even is the one who saw to it that Dufleurs flair is prohibited. Seems a difficult constellation to begin from but.. never underestimate the dedication of a man on a mission. Once he finally got the identity of his lady he is splendid in his way to help her, charm her and of course to win her. He has to work through a lot of difficulties due to his really mean predecessor, but stays honorable and protective of all whom he loves, his lady, his family, his calling. Dufleurs way of feeling time, her presence and impressions on the "grey plane" which seems to be the manifestation of the flow of time on a certain level are so fascinating! (Reminded me a bit of MZB's Darkover telepaths access to the time/space, but maybe that simply is the way it is and both authors are closer to the truth than we will ever know..) Saille really is Dufleur's match in all aspects and in this book we have the interesting twist that even at a time she still is shutting him out emotionally in real life, her flair - or the time itself - is bringing him to be with her on the grey (=time) plane. Creative new idea, that by being the heart mate, even the flair of the other one recognizes you somehow. So, we have two interesting, charming, destined for each other by fate lovers: the talented matchmaker in trouble, the time handling embroider who finds her creative flair being looked upon as art, obstacles to be mounted; several dramatic secrets of the past to be revealed; a fam cat who wants to be Time cat and live in a residence as it is befitting him.. and a unique and fascinating approach to time. I loved it! It's my favourite book in the series.
