Von Karen Ranney : Heaven Forbids (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Heaven Forbids (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An unusual, passionate love story that defies description.Von egh@aol.comHeaven Forbids is a wonderful love story. The main characters, Hugh and Kathryn, are not the typical lovers we find in romance fiction. Hugh is married to a woman he does not know and cannot love. Kathryn is a widow bound to his bride as a servant and blood. There is instant chemistry between them and although they try to deny it, their love is so strong that they cannot be parted in spirit. They face many hardships and a great deal of trauma but you know that their love will survive and triumph. Beautifully written, hard to put down. I wanted it to continue, to know what the future held in store for them. Highly recommend it.

KurzbeschreibungFor young widow Kathryn Siddons, the end of a loveless marriage meant that she was at the mercy of her clan. She had no choice but to go off to the Highlands as a companion to her newly-married niece and straight into the arms of the one man she couldn't have. A man who awakened long denied dreams and long forgotten desires.RT er's Choice Nominee - Most Innovative Historical RomanceRomance Writers of America RITA Finalist*KurzbeschreibungFor young widow Kathryn Siddons, the end of a loveless marriage meant that she was at the mercy of her clan.
