KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Intelligente Unterhaltung mit bsen UntertnenVon MeinNameTutNichtsZurSacheSehr kurzweilig mit erstaunlich vielen guten Pointen. Bin auf das Buch gestoen, weil Jonathan L. Howard einen (bitterbsen) Beitrag (Crowd Funding mit Ziel Zerstrung von Cannes, dem Ort in Europa mit der hchsten anteiligen Dichte von schlechten Menschen lt. Karte der UN, durch Zchtung eines sich von Salzwasser ernhrenden psionischen Mutantengehirns im Mittelmeer) dazu geliefert hat. Aber auch viele der anderen Beitrge (u.a. Arena Tetris in Lebensgre) sind ausgefallen und originell, frei nach dem Motto: Was man mit Crowd Funding alles anstellen knnte, aber Gott sei Dank noch nicht gemacht hat...

KurzbeschreibungIf youre a regular backer of Kickstarters, youve probably seen some unique crowdfunding projects in your time. But one thing all of those campaignsboringly!had in common was: They abided by the physical laws of the universe!HELP FUND MY ROBOT ARMY!!! is an anthology of science fiction/fantasy stories told in the form of fictional crowdfunding project pitches, using the components (and restrictions) of the format to tell the story. This includes but is not limited to: Project Goals, Rewards, User Comments, Project Updates, FAQs, and more. The idea is to replicate the feel of reading a crowdfunding pitch, so that even though the projects may be preposterous in the real world, they will feel like authentic crowdfunding projects as much as possible.The anthology features original, never-before-published fiction by Bradley Beaulieu , Veronica Belmont, Brooke Bolander, Maurice Broaddus, Tobias S. Buckell, Harry Connolly, Monte Cook, Matt Forbeck, Jason Gurley, Kat Howard, Jonathan L. Howard, Vylar Kaftan, Jake Kerr, Mary Robinette Kowal, Mur Lafferty, David D. Levine, Heather Lindsley, Carmen Maria Machado, David Malki!, Seanan McGuire, Samuel Peralta, Tim Pratt, Andy Penn Romine, Scott Sigler, Michael J. Sullivan, Jeremiah Tolbert, Genevieve Valentine, Derek Van Gorder, Chuck Wendig, Matt Williamson, Daniel H. Wilson, and Sylvia Spruck Wrigley. Plus, a reprint of the eponymous story that inspired the anthology by Keffy R.M. Kehrli, for a total of 33 crowdfunding-style stories.So if what youve always been looking for in a Kickstarterand couldnt findwas a project that allowed you to protect yourself from spoilers, buy wishes, find lost objects, or support a wildlife preserve for supernatural creatures, then HELP FUND MY ROBOT ARMY!!! Other Improbable Crowdfunding Projects may be just the thing youve been looking for.KurzbeschreibungIf youre a regular backer of Kickstarters, youve probably seen some unique crowdfunding projects in your time.
