Powerful!Von Anna SalamatinIt has been an absolute pleasure to read this heart stopping and romantic account of how our beloved Dragon Guard came to be. We meet Lord Manus O'Brien, who is also a knight of the realm. We also meet Abigail Donovan, a woman ahead of her time, strong willed and independent. Manus has loved her from childhood and now goes about wooing her, wins her heart and marries her....these are very romantic and very detailed scenes, such as what he sees in her eyes is "hope, attraction, but most of all their future." When he proclaimed his love and asks for her hand, is a truly heart felt moment. Their first night together as man wife is pure honest love that just sizzles! and as the years pass they form a bond that is so close and loving that there are never secrets, they tell each other everything. So, when Manus is called upon for a royal mission and learns the unbelievable details, he goes to fetch Abigail and leads her through the passageway, toward "THE GROTO" in the middle of "THE CAVE" where she too meets Alarick, A large silver dragon. The one remaining King of the dragons. Here we learn, along with Abigail, the sad story of how the dragons were hunted destroyed in the past and fought beside the Knights of the realm.... So to protect the remaining dragons and humans, the King along with the universe has given their blessing for a mage, (Goldwin) who has the power to merge the soul of a dragon to the soul of a Knight, so they will become one....this is also where we learn how the universe creates the perfect mate for each dragon Knight so the line will continue. Twelve Knights accepted the soul of a dragon, one for each of the remaining clans...they received their mark and spent three days learning their new state of being.....And the magnificent Dragon Guard is born. This is a fast moving read, pure enjoyment that I do recommend to readers 15+ Thanks a Million Julia....DRAGONS ROCK!
