Von Roxanne Rustand : Her Sister's Children (Mills Boon Vintage Superromance) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Her Sister's Children (Mills Boon Vintage Superromance):

KurzbeschreibungShe's got something he wants his land. And something he doesn't know he has his son! When Claire Worth inherits Pine Cliff resort on Lake Superior from her late sister, Claire also gets guardianship of her five-year-old twin nieces and her fourteen-year-old nephew. The resort she can manage; motherhood is something else again especially when her sister's first husband shows up with plans of his own. Ever since Logan Matthews lost Pine Cliff, his family's home, in a bitter divorce, he's had nothing to do with his ex-wife or her new family. Logan wants the place back. And now he has the means to fight for what's his. But he's becoming more and more attracted to Claire. He loves the warmth and laughter she and the children bring to Pine Cliff. And there's something about Claire's nephew that reminds Logan of himself at that age. Suddenly, there's a whole lot more at stake.

AutorenkommentarIt's such a delight to see my first book here on ! Greetings, and best wishes to all who are browsing through here! If you haven't read Her Sister's Children, I hope you'll consider doing so. One of my son's more...unusual...pets insisted on appearing in this book, and is now insisting on updates as to how the book is doing. This is one fellow I don't argue with! Romantic Times said of this book, "Gifted new author Roxanne Rustand imaginatively strikes the right balance between emotional depth, intrigue, tears, and laughter." Affaire de Couer magazine gave it four stars, and said it was "A heart-warming story of a man in search of a family and a woman in search of love." Vicki Hinze, best-selling author of single title novels including Duplicity and Shades of Gray said, "Her Sister's Children captures the imagination and touches the heart. Roxanne Rustand's unique voice charms and captivates." I'd love to hear what you think! You can find me, and other Superromance authors, at 'superauthors' Thanks so much for stopping by!
