In a desperate phone call just before her death, Morga had begged Whitney to find the little girl, to rescue SaraJane from her dangerous father a man called Rhys Gannon. When Whitney tracks Gannon down to a small place in Arizona, she lies about why she's there and what she wants from him. But contrary to what she expects, Rhys seems to genuinely love his daughter. In fact, the more Whitney sees of him, the more he doesn't resemble the man her sister described. Whitney knows she has to discover Morgan's secret. ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Linda Style is the award-winning author of 14 novels with Harlequin Superromance. She readily admits to being a travel junkie, a photoholic, and a tennis fanatic. She won't admit to having way too many pairs of shoes in her closet or possessing the ability to eat a family-sized bag of Lay's potato chips in one sitting. But, she says, nothing is more rewarding than writing her stories or romance, suspense and intrigue.
