KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. OK readVon CustomerThree Stars for this story set in the Scottish highlands at the time of the crusades. The story gives some insight in the way of life around the 1100s, and the characters are believable. Some of the revelations of the hero's past, especially towards the end, seem somewhat farfetched and made me roll my eyes. Entertaining read, but nothing out of the ordinary.

She is a member of the West Houston Chapter of Romance Writer's of America and is a devoted subscriber to the Romance Divas online forum. She has two cats, a 24-year-old cockatiel, a funny, supportive husband, and an organic herb and vegetable. Her mother even swears that she made a pet of a cockroach one time (but K.E. doesn't believe her). She likes to write humorous, sexy romances.
