treatVon Ein KundeWith her father injured, Abby Speen represents their farm at the Carlisle, Minnesota exhibition. That first night, Jesse Winslow introduces himself to a lonely Abby. She cannot help but tell Jesse that her spouse died two years ago and her newborn baby was stillborn not much afterward. Jesse tries to comfort Abby and they end up making love. Five months later, she sends the Alberta rancher a letter informing him she is pregnant. He surprises her by asking her to marry him. She accepts when she realizes the intolerance she and her child will suffer from friends and family in her hometown of Wicoigon, South Dakota. In Alberta, Abby meets Jesse's brother nasty Noah, who has doubts about this marriage. Jesse makes all the arrangements, but runs away just before the wedding day. Noah offers to marry Abby instead. With no place to go, reluctantly Abby accepts. However, neither one is prepared to the love that blossoms between them. Fans of modern day ranch tales will fully enjoy Judith Bowen's latest novel, HIS BROTHER'S BRIDE. Abby is a brave person, who continues to swing the bat in spite of several nasty curve balls tossed at her. Noah is a responsible individual who does the right thing. Jesse is Noah's opposite even though he wants to do right by Abby. This isosceles triangle works because readers understand what makes each one of these three people ticks. Hopefully, Ms. Bowen will provide Jesse's tale next in her rich Men of Glory series. Harriet Klausner KurzbeschreibungMEN OF GLORYA cowboy town in a cowboy country. This is a place a woman could love. These are men a woman could love! She's pregnant and she's his brother's wife-to-be. She met Jesse Winslow at a cattle show. They had a brief affair and now Abby Steen is pregnant. Jesse, a rancher from Glory, Alberta, offers to marry her, and Abby accepts. She leaves her home in South Dakota to come to the Lazy SB, jointly owned by Jesse and his brother, Noah. But while Jesse might have good intentions and lots of charm, responsibility isn't his strongest trait. That's always been Noah's department. So when Jesse takes off just abandons his bride before the wedding Noah marries her instead. Their marriage might be for the sake of her babies twins! but Abby and Noah soon discover they haven't made such a bad bargain. Because love that starts the slowest often lasts the longest.
