This book never stops!Von Ein KundeEvery time you think Whitney and Doug are going to get a chance to rest and catch their breath, the bad guys round the corner and they're off again! This is the first novel I've read where I actually felt like I was running right alongside Whitney and Doug. By the end of the book I was as breathless as they! The story of the treasure itself was intriguing. The era of the French Revolution literally scoured out a chasm in history separating what came before from what came after and it influenced much of modern history... such as the rise of Communism which started within a century of the Reign of Terror. Nora weaves in the history of this era with sensitivity and grace. I could feel Gerald's pain as he tried to protect the Queen's treasure, and although I could never condone what he did after his wife and daughter died, I could almost understand why he did it. I also enjoyed the description of Madagascar and its indigenous (sp.?) people. Jacques was sweet and funny, and the villagers and their ceremony to honor their ancestors were interesting. Great work, Nora! I really enjoyed HOT ICE. This book isn't so much an adventure as a thriller. If you like fast action and sharp dialogue, this one's for you. 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. badddd Von Ein Kunde this is without a question the worst book by NR ive ever read. forcing myself to finish a book is a terrible thing and had it not been for the fact that NR is my absolute favorite author, i wouldve put it down long before the last page. for anyone reading this as a first by NR, keep in mind...she has over 130 books to date....theres bound to be one bad one in the bunch. thankfully, i know the next will be better, therefore, i continue to read her books ::smile 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ghhhh. Von ia Das ist mit Sicherheit eines der langweiligsten Bcher von Nora Roberts, die ich sonst sehr gerne lese. Die Charaktere sind unsympathisch, es wird sich stndig ge"sugar"ed und nach der 3. Variation des Verfolgungsthemas ist dann auch mal gut. Ich lese sonst ein Buch dieser Seitenzahl in max. 2 Tagen, an diesem lese ich nun im 3-Seiten-Takt seit 3 Wochen. Wer Einschlafstrungen hat sollte es mal hiermit versuchen. Besser als jede Schlaftablette
