Wonderful Story!Von AReaderThis is one emotionally packed story you will not want to miss. In this story two young teenage best friends "experiment" with sex 3 months before she is to go to Harvard, which results in a pregnancy. This awesome story unfolds as this emotionally troubled young man's widowed stepmom, and his pregnant girlfriend's widowed father struggle with the situation. The author, Peggy Nicholson, did a tremedous job bringing all of the aspects of this story together, from a stepmom desperately trying to reach her troubled stepson, who he blames for his father's death, to a Father who so desperately wants to prevent his teenage daughter from making the same mistakes he did. This book held no dissapointments. It was awesome from the first page, to the breathtaking and emotional final paragraph. Definately a keeper!
