Von Shirley Jump : The Bachelor's Dare (Silhouette Romance) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Bachelor's Dare (Silhouette Romance):

"Survive and Drive"-nice idea Von Ein Kunde This book is about Claire Richards and her former next door neighbor Mark Dole, both of whom enter into the "Survive and drive"-contest to win an RV. The first 20 people are allowed to get on the trailer and the last to leave will win. It gets very cramped and after initially rubbing against each other, Mark and Claire make a plan to get the others to leave. Each of them has a very good reason for doing this and it takes quite a while until they confide in each other. I enjoyed this read very much and think it was an original idea (therefore 4 stars).

Kurzbeschreibung TO THE SURVIVOR GOES THE RV? That's what Claire Richards was banking on when she entered the "Survive and Drive" contest at the local mall. The forty-five-foot home on wheels was her ticket out of Mercy, Indiana. But first she had to beat out a bunch of other contestants, including Mark Dole, her gorgeous childhood nemesis. The question was, could she survive living in such tight quarters with the irresistible playboy? Let the games begin! Mark had his own reasons for making this unconventional road trip. But the sexy hairdresser wasn't playing fair. The longer he was cooped up with Claire, the more Mark believed they could both be winners in the game of love.
