Den sollte man nicht verpassen !Von William HaasEin genialer Genre Roman eines spanischen Autors. Das europische Setting, die realistische Darstellung des Outbreaks, die Tatsache das der Protagonist ein ganz normaler Mensch ist und nicht Survival oder Militärspezialist und vor allem die Tatsache das er nicht nur um sein berleben kmpft sondern auch an seinen Kater Lucullus denkt und sein Leben mehrmals fr ihn riskiert, machen diesen Zombie Roman zu einem der besten und nicht nur fr Genre Fans interessant. Love it und hoffe das die Fortsetzungen bald bersetzt werden...2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A realistic Zombie novelVon thovaderWhat a great read, I really enjoyed it! It's not one of those typical Zombie novels, though but that's exactly what I liked most about the book. It's quite realistic and describes the life of an ordinary person that gets hit by an apocalypse.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Quite entertaining!Von B. L.I dont read many zombie novels. I like some zombie movies and am, of course, a fan of "The walking Dead". Like with all settings or topics the zombie apocalypse will at some point be redundant. But for me the perspective of the single unlikely survivor who is no hero at all was refreshing and unique! I like the characters and the setting. Will definitely read the sequels.Another book i can recommend is "The girl with all the gifts"Have fun!
