first hand knowledge, background information and knowledge.

Kurzbeschreibung For decades, Omar Yussef has taught history to the children of Bethlehem. When a favourite former pupil, George Saba, is arrested for collaborating with the Israelis in the killing of a Palestinian guerrilla, Yussef is convinced that he has been framed. With George facing imminent execution Yussef sets out to prove his innocence. As Yussef falls foul of his headmaster and the local police chief, time begins to run out for this teacher-turned-detective. His classroom is bombed and members of his family are threatened. But with no one else willing to stand up for the truth, it is up to Omar to act, even as bloodshed and heartbreak surround him. Pressestimmen " * 'Matt Rees takes a complex world of culture clash and suspicion and places upon it humanity.' David Baldacci * 'A beautifully written story. I have walked the streets of Bethlehem with Omar Yussef, smelled the dust and the fear, tasted his food, shared his anger and his hope. His decency is a light in the gloom. I shall not forget him.' Anne Perry * 'The best - and the rarest - sort of mystery: exciting and compelling, but it is also deeply moving.'
