AMAZING!!!Von LenaRibka"All those millions of stars and planets and it only takes three to make something important. The Sun, the Moon, and the Earth. And here we are. Life."I didn't chose the theme of my books on purpose, but it happened that I had a few books recently, one after another, that dealt with religion's topic and in which the religious families/surroundings were part of the plot.Being grown up in an atheist family with respect to another cultures and traditions I have always considered the Bible being a historical document like an ancient papyrus, and Jesus Christ a literary figure.And I'm thankful to my fate to be one of this happy humans.But Never Argue Over Politics Or Religion.The Bible Boys is a story of Matthew Moore who had bad luck to be born into a radically Evangelical family. Religious fanatically.With that everything has been said. He didn't have a childhood, he doesn't have any privacy, he doesn't have any friends and he's DIFFERENT. For me is The Bible Boys a beautifully told episode, actually there are only few days, taken from the life of Matthew Moore at the very important turning-point. When Caleb Clare entered his life and put everything upside down. Reading Dan Skinner is always a big pleasure. I think I enjoy his writing even more than his stories, his philosophical prose full of amazing lines and faithful thoughts. I didn't rate it with a full stars score because the romance between Matt and Caleb was a bit too rush for my taste, and it is also my way to show how much I love his Memorizing You. For everybody who appreciate a great writing highly recommended!

Kurzbeschreibung A Sin. An Abomination. Teenagers Caleb and Matthew had been told by the radical fundamentalist church that dominated their families' lives that a love like theirs between two boys was unnatural and forbidden. That it would damn them forever. The religion controlled their families like puppets, watched their every move, made keeping a secret almost impossible. They had only one chance to be together...and it would be a daring one right under the noses of the very people who would condemn them... The Bible Boys By Dan Skinner Kurzbeschreibung A Sin.
