Undercover DukeVon Kindle JunkiePosing as a coach guard at the estate of a merchant, William, Duke of Arundel, is trying to find out who killed his younger brother and why. He is attracted to his "master's" daughter, Ann, who is being pressured by her father to accept an arranged marriage to the heir of the Earl of Oxford.The story is well-written, wrapping the reader in the action with some suspense towards the ends.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Intriguing but not fulfilling Von H.A.B.A story which you read fast....but so many open questions

...Occasionally the story jumps - especially at the end

Kurzbeschreibung Ann Wyatt would do anything to escape a destiny determined by her merchant father and the shackles of an arranged marriage. When a mysterious stranger takes up a position in her fathers household, Ann finds herself being drawn into the dangerous, erotic grip of a servant with a secret past, a double life and a dangerous agenda. But how can love survive between a lady and her servant? William Hyde, tall, handsome, and well-spoken has taken employment in the Wyatt mansion on recommendation from no less than the Duke of Arundel. Unbeknown to Ann and the rest of the household, this new guard is the Duke himself. Driven undercover by the horrific murder of his younger brother, the Duke, masquerading as servant William, is determined to find the locals responsible for the murder. Immediately entranced by the masters daughter, Williams plans are overcome by his unstoppable passion. With ever more shocking revelations about his late brothers life, William is torn by his need to avenge a loved-ones death and a passionate desire to be with the young woman who he is paid to protect. Will the truth bring them closer together or tear them apart?
